PROCLAMATION

of the BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

PROCLAMATION ESTABLISHING MARCH 12, 2010 as the "1st ANNUAL MEXIKA NEW YEAR" AND EVERY YEAR THEREAFTER, EXCEPT ON LEAP YEARS WHEN THE DATE WILL BE MARCH 11.

WHEREAS, The ancient calendar systems of pre-America were established with the participation of thousands of Peoples and Nations across thousands of miles in this hemisphere and over thousands of years; and

WHEREAS, Based on careful observation and patient study, first nations adapted the cyclical revolution of the Earth into their model of co-existence and governance; and

WHEREAS, The calendar system of the Olmek, Toltek, Maya, and Aztek is recognized by modern science to be the most precise system; and

WHEREAS, The culmination of that study and experience came to rest on what is commonly known as the AZTEK CALENDAR, which now rests in the Museum of Anthropology and History in Mexico City; and

WHEREAS, March 12 is celebrated as MEXIKA NEW YEAR; based on information that is substantiated by both European and Mexika calendars; and

WHEREAS, City College of San Francisco is teaching its students and community about the importance of the Aztek Calendar; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That March 12th is recognized as the Mexika New Year; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco celebrates with the CCSF community as it begins formally recognizing the Mexika New Year on March 12, 2010 at 6 AM.
